To whom it may concern,

This letter is written as intent to give Leslie Jacobson the highest of recommendations. She is intelligent, capable, motivated, discerning and entirely able to take on and complete any tasks required of her.

Leslie has served me and our organization with dedication to purpose and commitment to objectives. She thinks on her feet, always has positive input, is thorough, and totally competent in carrying to completion any duties she has ever taken on for us.

She has served us as Event Manager for the MotherLode Reunion MusicFest and Arts Faire, an annual festival that requires a person with her skills, personality, and demeanor. She performs at a high level of efficiency and has shown to be flawless in her decision making which often has to be immediate. She oversees the festival staff and over 125 volunteers.

Leslie is a joy and a pleasure to work with and our entire staff would not only concur, but have their own praises for her. She would be a positive and highly valuable asset for any organization.

I am grateful for my/our working and personal relationship with her. She is a joy and I give her my blessings in any endeavor she may choose. I may be contacted for any questions regarding Leslie.

Sincerely,

A Non-profit Public Benefit Corporation
